

The Action Points

1. Read the nutrition labels on foods

Don't purchase anything with sugar or sweeteners. Be careful as sugar is not always labeled as such.

2. Keep a food diary

Write down exactly what you are eating so that you can periodically review it. Sugar often sneaks back into the diet despite our best efforts. A food diary will help keep you accountable.